

About WEFILM

„Engaging online films and commercials, that’s what we make. Wefilm loves to tell stories in a new way. We believe in pulling instead of pushing. Our films have been shared over 60 million times. Wefilm represents award winning directors. All of them are infected by the film-virus and love to make online films and commercials. WEFILM is the proud winner of several Cannes Lions.

Biography WEFILM

WEFILM was born in 2009 as a Dutch directors collective, specializing in engaging online films. WEFILM directed awardwinning virals, such as Max the Hacker (27 million+ views), interactive billboard (Cannes Lion), BMX downhill (4 million+ views) and Stanislav (5 million+ views, 4 Cannes Lions, 2 Eurobest Awards).

WEFILM chooses idea over style. WEFILM is always searching for new ways to make engaging films. Stuff that people want to share. If they don't want you to see it, it's simply not good enough. With this philosophy their films have been shared over 50 million times, and counting. They believe that combining new techniques with the craft of directing leads to new ways of telling stories. Sometimes funny, sometimes beautiful, sometimes extreme. Amsterdam-based collective WEFILM consists directors and creative producers.
